Teachings of The Holy Quran:

The Day of Discrimination

Ch. 25: 21-34

21 And those who look not for meeting with Us, say: Why have not angels been sent down to us, or (why) do we not see our Lord? Indeed they are too proud of themselves and revolt in great revolt.

22 On the day when they will see the angels, there will be no good news for the guilty, and they will say: Let there be a strong barrier!

23 And We shall turn to the work they have done, so We shall render it as scattered motes.

24 The owners of the Garden will on that day be in a better abiding - place and a fairer resting - place.

25 And on the day when the heaven bursts asunder with clouds, and the angels are sent down, as they are sent.

26 The kingdom on that day rightly belongs to the Beneficent, and it will be a hard day for the disbelievers.

27 And on the day when the wrongdoer will bite his hands, saying: Would that I had taken a way with the Messenger!

28 O woe is me! would that I had not taken such a one for a friend!

29 Certainly he led me astray from the Reminder after it had come to me. And the devil ever deserts man.

30 And the Messenger will say: My Lord, surely my people treat this Qur'an as a forsaken thing.

31 And thus have We made for every prophet an enemy from among the guilty, and sufficient is thy Lord as a Guide and a Helper.

32 And those who disbelieve say: Why has not the Qur'an been revealed to him all at once? Thus, that We may strengthen thy heart thereby and We have arranged it well in arranging.

33 And they cannot bring thee a question, but We have brought thee the truth and the best explanation.

34 Those who will be gathered to hell on their faces — they are in an evil plight and straying farther away from the path.
