

The HOLY QUR-AN

THE HYPOCRITES AND DISBELIEVERS

THE FOLLOWING ARE LISTED SUBJECTS ON "HYPOCRITES AND DISBELIEVERS" WITH CHAPTERS AND VERSES FROM THE HOLY QUR-AN WHERE THEY MAY BE FOUND.

The hypocrites must be separated from true believers: Chapter 3, Verse 178; Chapter 29, Verse 11; Chapter 27, Verse 29 and 31.

They spread false reports: Chapter 4, Verse 84.

The hypocrites desire to destroy the Muslims: Chapter 4, Verse 113.

Their opposition to the Messenger turned to failure: Chapter 4, Verse 115.

They practice deception: Chapter 4, Verse 142 and 143.

Hypocrites are not to be taken for friends by the believers: Chapter 4, Verse 144.

They are to be forgiven if they renounce hypocrisy: Chapter 4, Verse 146 and 147.

They act as spies for the enemies of the Muslims: Chapter 5, Verse 41.

They seek friendship with enemies of Islam: Chapter 5, Verse 52.

They shall not be successful: Chapter 5, Verse 53.

Their presence is a source of weakness: Chapter 9, Verse 47.

Their spending or giving in charity to the Muslims is not accepted: Chapter 9, Verse 53 and 55.

Their faultfinding: Chapter 9, Verse 58 and 59.

Punishment by the Messenger and the Muslims of the hypocrites: (See footnote, 1067) to Chapter 9, Verse 52.

They molest the Prophet: Chapter 9, Verse 61.

Those who molest the Messenger of Allah, for them is a painful chastisement. Whoever opposes Allah and His Messenger, for them is the fire of hell. This is the grief the hypocrites are threatened with in: Chapter 9, Verse 63.

This is not to be taken literally; it is a grief that willabase and disgrace the hypocrites. See: Chapter 9, Verse 68.

Their false oaths: Chapter 9, Verse 62.

Their opposition: Chapter 9, Verse 63.

They enjoin evil, and forbid good: Chapter 9, Verse 67.

The hypocrites are cursed: Chapter 9, Verse 68.

Their works rendered null: Chapter 9, Verse 69.

The Messenger should strive hard against hypocrites: Chapter 9, Verse 69.

They mock the Muslims: Chapter 9, Verse 79.

They shall not be forgiven: Chapter 9, Verse 80.

Relation with hypocrites cut off: Chapter 9, Verse 80. (See footnotes 1077 and 1079).

The Messenger and the Muslims are forbidden to offer prayer for them: Chapter 9, Verse 84.

Muslims forbidden to have intercourse with hypocrites: Chapter 9, Verse 95. (See footnote 1085).

The hypocrites build Mosques to sow dissension among Muslims and to afford shelter to enemies of Islam: Chapter 9, Verse 107 and 110. (See footnote 1094).

The hypocrites spread evil reports: Chapter 33, Verse 60 and 61. (See footnote 2012).

They obey enemies of Islam: Chapter 47, Verse 25-28.

The chastisement of the Hypocrites: Chapter 48, Verse 6.

Their excuses: Chapter 48, Verse 11-14.

Hypocrites forbidden to accompany Muslims expeditions: Chapter 48, Verse 15.

Hypocrites are deprived of light: Chapter 57, Verse 13-15. (See footnote 2448).

Hypocrites design against the Muslims: Chapter 63, Verse 3.

"Allah specially chooses for His mercy whom He pleases. And Allah is the Lord of mighty grace:" Chapter 3, Verse 73.

The believers will not be left in the condition of the hypocrites and disbelievers until Allah separates the evil from the good. Allah chooses of His Messengers whom He pleases. So, believe in Allah and His Messengers. Chapter 3, Verse 178.

The Believers are Warned Not to Slander Each Other: Chapter 24, Verse 16.

C cot
list
wit
cul
ing
C wo
ver
to ude
the tur
C sid 7th
the pir
in sio
cat
of 907
C
no
sie
Tal
the Ha
Ibn