

Check yourself, Mr. Hussein!

By Janice All

THIS WRITING comes in answer to the radio station, WBEE, as commentated by Mr. John Day, having Mr. Hussein as the guest speaker, today, March 1, 1972.

I happen to be a Secretary for the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad, myself, so when it comes to discussing the moral tenets of the Nation of Islam, as taught to the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad, by Allah, God — I can bear witness that this is the cleanest way of life on earth this side of Heaven. None can equal him.

Hearing Mr. Hussein's rhetorical outlook on the Nation of Islam and on Messenger Muhammad — I was so astonished and beguiled to see that he really disagrees with this man who is doing so much for us, the Black lost and found people here in the hells of North America.

To you, Mr. Hussein, when you read this article or when it is read to you — might I suggest that you refer to the Bible and Holy Quran? Reread the scriptures, which you say that you are an authority on. Read wherein that all the other Prophets had wives with a multitudiness amount of children.

Now with Messenger Muhammad on the scene, and having been given the mission of uplifting this Black Nation of people, and having been given the Divine permission of having as many wives as he desired, by Allah, God, himself — those like you look for the minutest point to scandalize his character. Holy Quran — Chapter 33: 48-50 and Bible — Kings Chapter 11: 2 & 3.

Mr. Hussein, what makes you an authority on morals? How many women have you had in life? In what year did Allah, God, visit you? Just think, Mr. Hussein, Mr. Muhammad has had the same wife for the past 53 years. Read in the Books where it says that he started out with one wife and ended his mission with one wife.

Check yourself, Mr. Hussein! A man of your caliber should be more careful and thoughtful when it comes to verbally assaulting Messenger Muhammad — lest you find yourself eating the dust and blindly wandering on and on.

Thank you for reading this article and might I suggest that you take heed.
