

The Woman in Islam

By Margary Hassain

IN THE NAME OF ALLAH (God) MASTER FARD MUHAMMAD, to Whom Praises are due forever. The Woman in Islam gives all Holy Thanksgiving to Allah for Giving us His Divine MESSENGER MUHAMMAD who teaches us in accord with our very nature, in which we were created. For he teaches us the very nature in which we were created.

WOMAN IS MAN'S GREATEST HEAVEN

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches us that the Woman is Man's Greatest Heaven.

He teaches us that the man's home is his heaven also, but his heaven is not complete without the woman. He teaches us the way of the righteous woman so that the man has knowledge and does not, through ignorance, choose an ignorant savage minded woman and thereby put the disbelieving woman in his home and turn heaven into hell.

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches us that the woman was made to console the man. She is his glory. Her smile and her approval makes him happy and enlivens his spirit to go forth and conquer.

IN Christianity, the savage life, the woman knew that she was important to the man and sometimes with this knowledge she enslaved him so that the man was afraid to show his love. In many, many marriages the wife complained all the time for the man to do his duty of providing for her, but she withheld giving anything in return. She gave him no credit no matter how much he tried or how much he accomplished. She withheld affection and love from him which is against his rights as a husband, and so doing SHE HAS BROKEN THE LAW.

Even in the devil's law, the white man will give a divorce to a husband when his wife refused to do her wifely duties. How much more should we, who are now civilized under the teachings of MESSENGER MUHAMMAD, know our duty, fulfill our duty, or suffer the consequences of failing to do our duty between husband and wife.

AND, in Islam, our duty is only another word for LOVE.

A woman has no grounds either in the court of law or in the law of nature or in scripture, to justify her refusing or withholding herself from her husband and she is therefore guilty and she is the law breaker with all bearing witnesses against her. If he allowed her to deprive him, she would then be guilty of weakening him to fall victim of fornication. Although he would be punished for fornication, for yielding.

Bible 1 Cor. 7:2, 3,4

2, "Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4. The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband:....."

ALL PRAISES ARE DUE TO ALLAH (God). The Woman in Islam Thanks HIM for HIS DIVINE MESSENGER AND HIS DIVINE MESSAGE.
