

The watchful eyes of the white and black world were witness to the indisputable fact on February 26 and 27 in Chicago that Almighty Allah had raised His last Messenger, the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, and given him the only true solution to the problem of the 22 million black men, women and children in America.

THE GREAT Savior's Day convention has gone, but its undiminished spirit — set in motion by the Honorable Elijah Muhammad hour after hour with his fierce fire of truth — continues to point out a new road for a new world; a world Messenger Muhammad is preparing his people for; a world of freedom, righteousness, justice and equality.

Muhammad is ushering his people into the new world much as Moses guided his people out of the clutches of the Pharaohs. The Messenger, in the eyes of the black man of Asia, Africa as well as America, stands of greater stature than any black leader in the world today, willing to take the hands of all 22 million of his people and lead them to safety from the undeniable doom descending upon a corrupt and evil America.

What happened February 26 and 27 was enough to shock and wake up the blindest black Christian preacher, some of whom came to hear and see.

They saw the Messenger of Allah addressing an "unintegrated" black audience of guests, friends and followers and ushering them into a new world of Islam, personally pointing out the smallest details of the divine road, and saying:

"HEAR THE truth and live. Hear lies and die."

The thousands who heard

Mr. Muhammad knew that his message was not just for those inside the Coliseum, but also for the millions of black men, women and children outside — throughout America.

On February 26, the Messenger brought rejuvenation and direction — and on February 27, he brought the blueprints for salvation.

"He has raised me among you," this humble man spoke from the rostrum quietly and earnestly. "The first thing is to learn who is to be judged and who is the judge; what the charges are against the people he will judge and the kind of sentence he will impose upon them."

And Messenger Muhammad, in words heard around the world — within a matter of minutes in Africa and Asia — spelled out the true and only solution to peace, security and freedom for our people, a people who have suffered every indignity and torment known to man for 400 years.

ALTHOUGH Savior's Day saw, again and again, the usual distortions made by the white press; the usual attempts to impose a climate of fear and confusion around the Chicago arena; saw the usual spread of unfounded rumors. But the black men and women of America responded to the call of Mr. Muhammad in an unprecedented fashion.

Muhammad spoke and the spect this small Georgian-born man in their midst, were as shocked and amazed at the decorum and attentiveness of Muhammad's audience as at the Messenger's amazing revelations.

"There is not a Christian minister among us who could hold such a meeting," one black preacher admitted outside the Coliseum.

The Messenger did not mince words in telling his people the truth about their plight in America; nor did he pull any punches in detailing the unpleasant facts—for the truth is freedom.

"THERE IS no force on earth that can destroy the black people," the Messenger said. "We have no home on earth we can call our own. Islam is the son of law and truth. . . . I am your doorway out. . . . He has given me the key to let you in—or shut you out."

And the black world, slowly groping through the years of fear, continues to make its way to the doorstep of Muhammad's home and to the gates of his temples, which stretch across the Western hemisphere. It has been prophesied that there will be a nation of Islam here and all black men and women of America shall return to their original religion.

"We have a new day coming," the Messenger points out. "We have a new world that is now emerging on the old. But that new world cannot be made manifest to you and me until you receive justice."

"You must receive justice and truth," Messenger Muhammad has said. "Without the true knowledge of that

Schools Fail Negroes

Chicago's public schools have failed to educate Negro children so that they can move up in society, according to Robert Hunt, assistant professor of anthropology, Northwestern University. He said:

"Unconsciously, most of the school teachers don't want these kids to move up and constantly project this low-value stereotype which is crippling the Negro kids. . . . It is very difficult for them to move into the middle class."

world, it cannot come in. We are in a position wherein we must speak or die. Fear is preventing this. Fear is preventing the so-called leaders from speaking the truth. A leader who is afraid to speak the truth is no leader at all."

MESSENGER Muhammad already has opened the year 1966 as the year of decision. He has proved, for 35 years, that he is the divinely-appointed Messenger of Allah; the true leader willing and able—with Allah at his side—to bring about the salvation of 22 million black people destined to emerge on the world in all their greatness and glory, once they submit to Almighty Allah MUHAMMAD'S KEEN interest and concern in the elderly as well as the youthful, reflected in the above meeting with woman who came to shake the Messenger's hand at the end of Saturday's meeting. Thousands of black people had come out to hear Muhammad for the first time in their lives.

Islam Gives Life New Meaning for Rebellious Sailor

By Willie 6X Armstrong (Dorchester, Mass.) I will forever thank Allah and His Messenger, the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, for opening my mind enough to accept the teachings of Islam. Ever since my first experience with Islam, in some way I have been trying to live a better life. I WAS in the U.S. Navy when I accepted my first invitation to visit one of Muhammad's Mosques of Islam. Like most black men in military service, I was not receiving justice according to military law, nor human

Muhammad's Offer of $100,000, Without Takers

By A. T. Hamzior

As much as the Devil loves money, the offer of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad—made the first time last Savior's Day and repeated this Savior's Day—to any white person who would or could prove the white man in America is not the Devil personified brought no takers.

"MUHAMMAD has made it manifest that we have not been following a Godly people," a Negro guest was heard to say upon leaving the convention. "The Messenger has offered $100,000 reward. No one has stepped forward to claim it."

A Negro woman, who heard the offer, said:

"I was hesitant at first when I heard of Mr. Muhammad's offer. I thought someone surely would come forward by now and attempt to prove him wrong. But after this, let no whites come to me and ask me to be a follower. Muhammad has made it manifest what they are."

The startling offer made by Mr. Muhammad has brought more evidence of the revelation of the mission of the Messenger of Allah. "I am not before you for myself," the divinely-appointed leader has stated. "I am not self-sent. I am sent by Almighty God, Allah, to you. I have not missioned myself. My mission is not for myself, nor is my mission from the Devil. My mission is from the Lord of the Worlds. It is a very strong and powerful mission. It is a mission that will bring about a turning point in the history of the world."

THE POINT the Messenger has revealed already is manifest. We now live in the midst of it.

and accept the guidance of His last Messenger.

As new convert after new convert strode to the front of the hall to shake the hand of the Messenger, the truth rang out in 1966 for all to hear. It is time to hurry and join your own, for indeed the Messenger has warned the time is late.

The Messenger has opened the year 1966 for all black men and women to enter and enjoy a new life of peace and prosperity for unlimited years to come—one which will avoid the coming doom of America.

While 1966 is the beginning of the end for some, for our people who join the Messenger of Allah, it is indeed the beginning of a new life. This was the message brought to black America and the world by the Honorable Elijah Muhammad on the event of the momentous Savior's Day.

WARM APPLAUSE constantly interrupted the speech of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad as a great surge of visitors and guests swelled Savior's Day Convention in Chicago.

YOUNG AND old alike are cheerfully greeted by the Honorable Elijah Muhammad. Here he answers a question for an inquisitive youngster concerning the topic of his recent lecture.

O'Hara Warns U.S. to Ban Trade with South Africa

WASHINGTON, — Rep. Barrett O'Hara (D-Ill.), Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs subcommittee on Africa, warned the United States of black Africa's increasing resentment over U.S. economic support of the white-minority government of South Africa.

large shipment of aircraft to South Africa last month.

Such a move, O'Hara said, would "make a liar" out of United Nations Ambassador Arthur Goldberg and himself.

O'Hara said that, as a member of the U.S. delegation to the UN General Assembly, both he and Ambassador Goldberg had not only claimed a U.S. ban existed on weapons shipments to South Africa, but $60,000,000 in goods with military potential had been stopped.

SPEAKING at the opening session of hearings on U.S. opposition to economic sanctions against the Nazi-styled government of Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd, O'Hara charged that the U.S. virtually approved a
