

The Pearl found greater than all the other pearls

By Sister Tynetta Deanar

The Great Mahdi, Almighty God Allah, Who Came In the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom Praise is due forever, came to North America Alone, searching, as the parable of Matthews describes, as one, 'seeking goodly pearls.'

"Who when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that this is Almighty God Allah and His Messenger fitted next to him.

Also as in the parable of the hidden treasure, He, Allah, set out to purchase the whole field where the treasure was found. The field and the treasure and the pearl are all fitting parables from which we draw spiritual truths which form the base of the True Religion of God, Islam, which can be proven in no limited time.

Just as people choose the pearl and other precious jewels to adorn themselves, should not the God take a man who is like a pearl to adorn Him as a pearl for the adornment of the people? So in God's searching for a man to raise the dead, it is similar to the man who was searching for a great pearl.

In the parable He found His Pearl and He found His great man.

He, Almighty God, Allah, left this great man, the most Honorable Elijah Muhammad, who knew the field to nurture and produce from the field and those produced and gleaned from the field are the purified ones, the righteous Muslims shining with the light of Islam. Teaches the Holy Qur-an (Surah 8:46).

"Wealth and sons are allurements of the life of this world. But the things that endure Good deeds, are best in the sight of thy Lord, As reward, and best as (the foundation for) hopes."

Import Exhibit on display at Muslim Import
Merchandise Store
8401 S. Cottage Grove
Chicago, Illinois

he had, and bought it." So did Allah find The Honorable Elijah Muhammad to be that priceless man (pearl) who had been lost for a long time.

He (Muhammad) was found to be more valuable than others of his kind and He chose this one man for Himself to make a fitting for the link;