On Life In The Sudan

By Bayyinah Sharrieff

Thru my travels in Africa and Europe, I have seen how white America buys personalities, then supports these personalities to political power, thru giving white America indirect control. One does not have to travel in person to know this existing fact. Just read and listen to the news, and you will hear of the right governments (those with white America) and the leftist governments (those in opposition to America).

I FEEL very sorry for the Blacks in America who do not know this Truth by this time. Open your eyes and look at who America is supporting among our own Black kind today. I say supporting because thru publicity, Mr. Jesse Jackson and his Operation Breadbasket is being brought to the eyes and ears of all who watch TV or listen to the radio.

He is put before you to keep you from seeing the Honorable Elijah Muhammad and his great works for our Black kind. This newspaper which you are reading was printed on our Black-owned press by our own Black operators, and transported to you by our own Black trucks and some by our own airplane.

The Muslim-owned businesses total into millions of dollars. Why does not white America put this before your eyes on their news media? The answer is obvious.

This past weekend, Mr. Jesse Jackson was quoted repeatedly making statements about the injustice received by Blacks in White America. The Honorable Elijah Muhammad has had this printed in Black and white on the back page of this newspaper ever since 1963, and has been saying it publicly for practically 40 years.

This is not the first time that Mr. Jackson has taken words from the Honorable Elijah Muhammad. The majority of his statements concerning the uplift of the Black man are taken from the Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

IF YOU, Mr. Jackson, and others of your type would like to use some of Messenger Muhammad's teachings to further your cause and aims among your followers, you should give him the credit!

We who follow the Honorable Elijah Muhammad are for all of our Black kind receiving Freedom, Justice and Equality, and regaining our rightful places as owners of the planet earth.

Africa and Asia are kicking the white man out of their countries. The Sudan is doing this now. They have awakened to the truth of the right and the leftist rulers.

Black man in America, wake up before it is too late for this Great Truth today as taught by the Honorable Elijah Muhammad.
