As-Salaam-Alaikum

Dear Brother Minister:

I just got through reading your letter answering the letter I wrote you concerning coming with the Ministers every month to report your Temple condition.

And, I worry about you as an old Brother that I have known for many years and lived with for many years, and also lived with in the prison house for many years (smile). I am always glad to see you, Brother Minister Benjamin. I will be expecting you, and the dining room will be smelling good with that that you love to eat (smile).

The only thing, on the 1st and the 15th of every month, my house is so full of Ministers, that I have to turn some down, but you come on.

Give the Greetings to your wife, Sister Clara, and all the Sisters.

As-Salaam-Alaikum
