"Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord; And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse."

"THE END OF THE PROPHETS"

(Malachi 4:5-6)

Last week I questioned and clarified the question of what fathers will be turned to love their children, and which children will have their love established for their fathers.

WHAT PERSON, other than the Honorable Elijah Muhammad is making a people, who have been subjected to another people in servitude (fulfilling the prophecy to Abram of his seed—Genesis 15:13), aware of themselves and their fathers?

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad teaches us that the Black men who submit to the Will of God (Allah) are children (young) in the wisdom of the Gods. Those who are much older in this wisdom and who are our kind (Black) live East of the continent of America. They live in Asia. Comparing the lengths of time (age) in which those in Asia have been exposed to the wisdom of Allah (God) with ourselves (we Blacks in America), and realizing that we are from them (were taken from them about 400 years ago), one is truly safe to understand that those who submit to the Will of God in the East (Asia) are indeed fathers in the above sense to those of us who are submitting to the Will of God in the West.

The teachings of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad to us who listen, have made us know our true value (ourselves). We have learned what it is to be respected for our true value. You, the reader, know that he is the first one who told us to be proud that we are Black. He taught us why; that the Black Man is the Original Man; that the Black man created the planet Earth. He teaches us that we are the Gods by nature, and that our nature is good. We have been other than good due to our being subjected to a no good man (the white man) for so long a time (400 years). He teaches us to be ourselves, righteous people, and to shed the ways of filth and evil which we have gotten from the white man. When we do, it causes us to come into view of others on the planet Earth who also are striving to be righteous people. Those Muslims in the East look toward us Muslims who follow the Honorable Elijah Muhammad in the West with great admiration and love. They admire the women here who lengthen their garments to cover their bodies, and cover their heads in public, and speak not loudly in a manner unbecoming a lady. They admire the strictness of his followers to the laws of Islam, God: The shunning of the use of tobacco, narcotics and intoxicating beverage; The forbiddance of committing acts of adultery, and fornication.

I AM NOT just writing these words without proof. I lived in the Republic of the Sudan, a predominantly Muslim country, practically two years and know that the above-mentioned practices of the shunning of evil and the doing of good are everyday happenings to them.

According to the teachings of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad (and he is supported by the Holy Qur-an 49:10) everyone who submits to the Will of God are related (brethren).

While I was in the Republic of the Sudan, I was asked many times of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad and his followers. They (the Sudanese) referred to him as their Brother, and they have much love for him and his followers. They are interested in learning more of their relatives here in the West.

I have had the honor of assisting the Honorable Elijah Muhammad with his correspondence and can testify that this interest by Eastern Muslims is far more extensive than the Republic of the Sudan. From every Muslim country there are some who write claiming us as their Brothers in Islam. There is a love which has grown in them toward us. I have received many letters from my female colleagues in the Sudan who have even stated their love for me now that I am a Muslim. This was brought about by one teaching the knowledge of God and the Devil. This teacher is named Elijah . . .
