

The Woman in Islam

By Margary Hassala

IN the Name of Allah (God) MASTER FARD MUHAMMAD, to Whom Praises are due forever. The Woman in Islam Gives all Holy Praises to Allah and forever Thanks Him for Giving us our Divine Teacher, MESSENGER MUHAMMAD, and His Divine Teachings.

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches us the most profound teachings that the world has ever known. However, he simplifies these Divine Teachings to such a degree that we can readily put the Teachings to daily use. As it is written that MESSENGER MUHAMMAD would do, he makes it 'so simple that even a fool cannot err.'

The Woman in Islam, can easily put into practice the beautiful teachings of MESSENGER MUHAMMAD, concerning Man and Wife and reap the wonderful rewards of a strong and beautiful marriage and success in all that their union produces.

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches us, his students, that every word has great meaning and we learn much when we look into them for meaning. He teaches us that love is the right and true base for marriage that will last and endure forever. And when we trace the meaning of love back to its root and source, we find Allah (God). Therefore, true love, pure love, is Holy. It is a gift from Allah (God). This makes it very easy to understand the teachings of MESSENGER MUHAMMAD, "keep chaste until Allah (God) Sends you a mate."

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches us that "Man and woman are twins!" The Bible and the Holy Qur-an upholds it. When they marry for love they become one and even though they have a disagreement, they will not completely depart from one another. One may go but he or she will not stay away, they will be near by 'peeping at one another' and even if they smile in the face of another person, they soon hurry back to one another."

We can bear witness, love, like the sun, has warmth, life, it activates and it draws loved ones together. When people love one another, they are not happy or satisfied when they are deprived of the presence of each other. Their natural state is unity. Separation is an unnatural state or condition, for Man and wife.

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches man and wife, "When you marry for love you are not two persons now, you are one. No matter where you go or what you see, do not push one another away to admit something to stand between your love, and then you are living a good life. Let nothing get between you and your love for each other."

The Woman in Islam Gives all Holy Praises to Allah (God) for His Messenger and the beautiful life-giving Teachings of Islam.
