

Prayer Service In Islam

(The following is a continuation of the special prayer in Islam prepared by the Messenger of Allah and which appeared in our last issue.)

THE MECCANS were not enslaved to any physical king and people—only to false belief. But remember that prophecy “like unto me.” The man had to be one who received a revelation or guidance from Allah to physically liberate a people from the physical holding of a superior force or ruler. He must fight with this particular ruling class to release his people—like Moses. Then, he must give them their own religion, teach them the knowledge of the true God (Allah) and His true religion, Islam. And set up a completely new religious service never known to his people before. He must overcome them with nothing but the Truth and the power and guidance of Allah as Moses did with Pharaoh and his well-armed army. Because he is not in a position to arm himself and his followers with carnal weapons. For the enemy controls the manufacture of arms.

He must be one like Moses, dependent upon Allah for the victory over his enemy. Here he shows forth, in a land where: Allah has not been worshipped and where Islam has not been accepted as the true religion, the power of Allah by letting Allah fight his and his people's battle against their wicked oppressors.

THIS IS THE true type of man like Moses. If you study the prophecy concerning the last Messenger of God, according to the description given to the man by the Bible's prophecy in the Torah and Gospel, you will find that he is a man, according to the Psalms, with a name as “Muhammad” and also you will find him in the Revelations under the symbolical name “Lamb.” He gets the name (Praised) from the honor of the “twenty-four elders” or Islamic Scientists. The position that he is shown under, the symbolical “Lamb” in Revelations, is like the Holy Qur'an's teaching of one who is illiterate and that the people will find written down in the Torah and the Gospel. (The book of Isaiah the parables of Jesus.)

This is the man the above prayer is made for because he, as one of the Islamic writers says, will be born among the infidels. The revelations of the Bible symbolically places him in the midst of “four beasts.” Therefore, prayer must be made for his protection among a people without the teachings of Islam. Not a country where there was never any former prophets of Allah been risen and had set up signs of the future greatness of Islam as Arabia in the time of Muhammad. The signs of the future of Islam and its last Messenger, Abraham, had already set up in the Holy City Mecca; Muhammad did not destroy these signs, but rather he repaired the sign to live until it had served its purpose.
