I would like the Black women of America to realize who they have as their representative leader of the Muslim community of America so that they may begin to build a rigorous plan for their ultimate and complete adoption of his program of reform that is designed for every Black man, woman and child of the Western Hemisphere.

THE Eastern portion of our Islamic world will come to recognize the unity of Islam as demonstrated and articulated in the West through the divine spokesman of Allah, the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, and none other.

Many of the scholars of orthodox Islamic views recognize, as has been pointed out by our leader and teacher, Messenger Muhammad, that the fulfillment of the greatest part of Islamic prophecy as contained in the Holy Qur-an, the Bible, Torah and other religious Scripture could be fulfilled only at the time of world evolution, in which the entire surface of our planet earth had been explored, experimented upon the designated by specific migrations of peoples as a home base or center for the establishment of their various proposed governments and civilizations.

THE reopening of the East to the call of Islam under the real and divine guidance of Prophet Muhammad of 6th Century Arabia represented only one of many stepping stones leading to the termination of all prophecies of the last 6,000 years.

It must be remembered that the specific work of the Prophet Muhammad (may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) could not have been designed for all peoples and for all nations because all peoples and all nations had not yet been fully conceived and developed.

A great part of our Planet Earth, known as the Western Hemisphere, had not been explored or contained by any representative body under Muslim authority at the time of Prophet Muhammad.

THERE was no special delegated force under the guidance of Prophet Muhammad who set out in search of the "prophetic lost sheep of the House of Israel, as contained in the Book of Matthew of the New Testament. The lost sheep referred to in Scripture were not, at that time, exposed to the wolves in sheep's clothing, for the time of their civilization had not been fulfilled.

The New Testament refers to this work being held up (the gathering of the lost sheep) until the time of the Gentiles is fulfilled.

We, the Black women of America, now are witnessing the fulfillment of these prophecies which bear the stamp and the mark of Jesus' work as they appear in John, Chapter 16:12—"I have yet many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth."

THE spirit of truth has come in the person of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, who does not speak to us on his own authority. Whatever his Allah commands him to speak, these are the words of His Mouth (Almighty God, Allah).
