The Woman in Islam

By Margary Hassain

THE WOMAN of Islam, by rights, has the highest position of any woman in the society of the Nations of the Earth. We were blinded to that knowledge, until Allah (God), Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom Praises are due forever, came and raised up His Messenger Muhammad and taught him the true knowledge of us. Messenger Muhammad teaches this knowledge to us. It is the work and mission of Messenger Muhammad, to reform us and recivilize us, and prepare us to take our place. The Black woman of America must be prepared, for she does not know her place and she does not know how to take her place. The clothes which the Muslim woman wears are the clothes appointed by Allah (God), for her to wear.

THE REGAL garments of the Muslim woman cover her from her high neck-line to her long sleeves, to her ankles. She is well-tailored and well-groomed.

WHEN A Black man or woman of America becomes a Muslim, he or she reclaims their membership in the Nation of Islam. Messenger Muhammad teaches us, and the Holy Quran Chap. 33:59, verifies, to the women, "... let down upon them their over-garments. This is more proper, so that they may know, and not be given trouble. And Allah is ever Forgiving, Merciful." How proud we are to be the Woman in Islam.
