

THE WORLD

PART 1

over and over, again on the same thing hoping that maybe you'll get it on the second time around or the tenth time around.

Almighty God, being present today, has manifested His Presence, not just to be present but to rule. This is His day. This is the Sabbath: not Saturday, not Sunday, but everyday.

THE CRUCIFIX

The one for whom the Sabbath was made is here. So it's no need anymore to have a sign or religious ritual or service telling of something to come because that something is here.

Brothers and Sisters, do you know what seduction is? It comes from the word "seduce." The biggest object that you can find of subliminal seduction is the so-called white Caucasian crucifix. You would be amazed if we could tell you this afternoon, just how much that crucifix is loaded with messages that come to your mind without your knowledge, and without your observation. It directs your behavior, not in the way of God, but in the way of the big devil himself.

We don't have time today and we haven't included it in our talk. I only wanted to mention it to you while going into our talk for today and that is the subject of "Remaking the World." I mentioned it for this reason: there is wisdom that can unlock the chains on your mind, but that wisdom itself has been locked up with symbolic language that you can't understand without someone to show you the correct interpretation of that language.

THE GRAVEYARD OF OUR PEOPLE IS THE BIBLE

We want to begin this talk today on calling to you to remake the world with some reading from Bible Genesis. I've heard some say, and it's nothing new, that we don't need a lot of religion. They say that that's been our problem: too much religion.

The Honorable Master Elijah Muhammad said (may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon Him) that the graveyard of our people is the Bible. If you are to be raised from the grave, you have to be raised from the grave of the Bible. That work is not over because the Bible is still a graveyard. If you don't believe it, maybe you've been away from the church people for a while. Go back around the church people, visit them in the churches, and listen to what they are saying.

If they have an appeal or if they attract you, most likely it is because they have left the old church language and have taken on the language of the Nation of Islam. It's not good to leave a thing that has possessed you without understanding it.

If you leave it without first understanding it, you haven't really left it. You have only brought about a physical separation between yourself and the thing that once possessed you. But that thing is still working in your hidden thoughts and it's still making you behave in the way designed by that particular thing that possessed you.

THE DEVIL'S JESUS CHRIST

Christ the Prophet was a good man, a righteous man, the greatest of the Prophets to come to Israel or to the Jews as they are called. But the Jesus Christ that the average Black man and woman have in their hearts and mind is a devil.

I'm not saying that your Jesus Christ is a devil. I'm saying that the devil's Jesus Christ is a devil. The devil gave him to you, he was not yours. I'm not calling white folks "devil." In fact, I'd like to see some white folks. I've never seen any white folks in My life.

If you're talking about the people who sometimes come maple-colored, pink-colored, red-colored, red and blue colored, gray-colored, high yellow-colored, who come often with blond hair and blue eyes, I'm not calling those people "devil." I'm calling the mind that has ruled those people and you "devil." It ruled them for their glory and ruled you for your shame and damnation.

Understand that I mean it is their collective mind (their common mind) that they have inherited from their great ancient father, the Satan, the devil himself. Go back and read the words of Jesus. He said that if the Jews were the children of Abraham they would love him. He said that he knew their father, he was a liar and a murderer from the beginning. He said that their father was the devil and the work of their father they would do. Why "they will do" the work of their father? It is because their father's mind still rules in their body. How can they do any work except the work of their father when they don't have a mind of their own? They have the mind of their father.

I repeat, Brothers and Sisters, the devil mentality (the germ that ruled in the Caucasian body) ruled them for their glory and power over the world. The same they passed on to you and it ruled in you for your shame and your destruction.

JESUS: THE CAUCASIAN IMAGE

The strongest arm or messenger of that Caucasian mentality is the crucifix that they teach you to love and cherish in the Christian Church. It has on it the image of a Caucasian man. They have made the Caucasian image to arouse in you, sympathy, pity, and tears for that particular Caucasian image.

He has thorns sticking into the scalp of his head, nails driven through the palms of his hands, nails driven through his feet and a bleeding wound that was made by a spear that went into his heart.

On top of that you are told that he was driven up to his place of crucifixion. They beat him, they stoned him they spat on him, and they placed a heavy weight on his back for him to carry all the way to the place of his crucifixion. That weight was the heavy cross.

You sit in the church and you just get all upset. Your little old sinful heart just starts trembling inside your chest. You say, "What kind of people would do a sweet man like they did this man?" You accept him right away into your heart, into your arms, and into your home. You put him on your wall and he's the only thing on your wall or in your heart that you don't curse at.

GET OUT OF THE COLOR SLAVERY

No matter how good a Christian most of you say you are, when you get mad you'll come out with all those big unwritten adjectives. As Black as you say you are, in your minds with your natural hairdo, you pick up the word "black" and throw it at the members of your house. This shows us that you still think it's an ugly word. You can't wake yourself up; God has to wake you up.

It's time for us to get out of the color slavery.

That's why the Great Master W.F. Muhammad told the Honorable Master Elijah Muhammad (peace and blessings upon Him) that the so-called white man is not really white. He said that he's so-called white. He said that what he really is is a colored man. What did he mean by that?

In the white man's language of white supremacy, white means pure, divine, godly, of the family of the son of God (Jesus Christ) — the yellow-haired, pale-faced, blue-eyed man on the cross.

That's what the Ku-Klux-Klansman is telling you when he tells you he's white. He's telling you that he is God. "Can't you see I look like Jesus, we are one flesh. If you don't bow down to what we're telling you, boy, I'm going to bring the sign of my Christ (the cross) and burn it on your lawn and swing you up on a tree."

Let us now think on color problems. I was never raised to think white meant anything special, so I never had any color complexes or inferiority. The color of a person never meant anything to Me. If he was pale-faced with blue eyes and blond hair but behaved as a human being, I respected him and I was not afraid of him. But I was always suspicious. I never accepted him until he proved to Me that he was not untrue to the label. I hope you understand.

The Muslims didn't call them white folks. They gave themselves the name white folks. The history of white folks is the history of a devil. So if there are some that are not true to the devil mentality that has ruled in their bodies and made that devil history, then they have to show Me. I'm not going to take them on face value. This is wise. No wise man picks up snakes without knowing them. Some are poisonous and some are not, but you have to know them first. If you don't know them, stay away from them.

"THE BLACKER THE BERRY
THE SWEETER
THE JUICE"

I am not here to humor you, I am serious. What I am going to say now might be a little humorous. In fact, it's just outright funny.

I remember as a child I used to observe people all the time.

Once I saw two girls arguing. One girl had straight hair and was as light as a white person but she didn't have keen features. They were cursing each other out. The light girl was getting the best of the Black girl. The Black girl didn't have any terrible white adjectives to throw back at the light skinned girl. (This was back about 20 years ago.)

All the Black girl could say was, "The blacker the berry, the sweeter the juice." But the light girl was throwing so much on her that she was about to start crying. She just kept saying, "The blacker the berry, the sweeter the juice." What made it so pitiful was that the Black girl was too small to whip the big, ugly, light-faced girl.

So I stood at a distance, looking to see which one was telling the truth. I had never had that color problem because My parents didn't raise Me like that. I was born in Islam. When I started examining the light skinned girl's face, I saw that she looked like a shaved orangutan with its lips turned inside out. She was so messed up that she had to be light to hide the mess up.

Since she was not born in this time-period of Black awareness, it was a mercy that her ugliness was hidden with lightness. She looked like something you could bring out in the dark, turn a light on quick and frighten an army off their post. She looked like every artist had a hand in making her and all of their intentions were to destroy art. For some of you, light colored skin and straight hair are the only marks of beauty.

WE LIVE BLACK INFERIORITY

We do have a color problem, Brothers and Sisters. It has been bred into our minds so long
