

INTRODUCING "THE MESSENGER" to the packed Coliseum, New York minister Malcolm X talks of the achievements of Elijah Muhammad, while the leader

AN ARTIST displays portrait drawn of Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad, as visitors to convention's Unity Bazaar.

A DELEGATION of visitors from Newark, N. J. are attracted to another display of artwork at Unity Bazaar.

(seated in center at left) waits to address audience. Muhammad's wife is at his right, and John X, national secretary, is seated to his left.

ORIGINAL DRUMMING exhibition is given by African Student Union of America at display during Muslims' Chicago convention.

CLOTHING from Cherry the Tailor's shop on Chicago's southside are viewed by portion of crowd at three-day confab in Windy City.

