

MUSLIMS COME TOGETHER

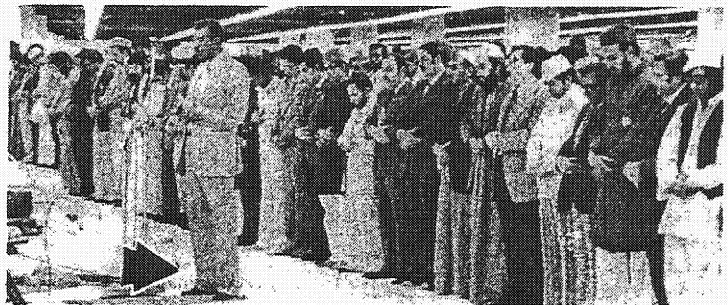

CHEIF MINISTER OF THE NATION of Islam, W.D. Muhammad, who has made four pilgrimages (Hajj) to the Islamic Holy city of Mecca, instructs followers on how to pray in the traditional method.

CHEIF MINISTER Wallace D. Muhammad (third from right) leads Muslims in traditional Islamic prayer in Temple No. 2 on the Friday preceding the Eid - ul Fitr.

CHEIF MINISTER, W.D. Muhammad (arrow) and Raymond Sharief, Minister of Justice for the Nation of Islam, join other Muslims in large congregational gathering in the Eid - ul Fitr at McCormick Place in Chicago.

ELTIJAM ABUGIDEIRI of the Sudan leads more than 10,000 Muslims in the Eid - ul Fitr group prayer in Chicago.

MUSLIMS OF ALL nationalities and colors kneel en mass in prayer at McCormick Place on Chicago's South Side.

AS IS TRADITIONAL, Chief Minister W.D. Muhammad receives and gives Islamic greetings to other Muslims: Looking on is Willie Muhammad (left) as Chief Minister greets Karim Allah of Chicago's Temple No. 2.

CHEIF MINISTER MUHAMMAD gives and receives greetings from Bilalian (Black American) Muslims and young Pakistani (right).

CHEIF MINISTER MUHAMMAD stands with brothers, each of whom sells in excess of 1,000 Muhammad Speaks newspapers, at a dinner in his home on the Sunday prior to the Eid - ul Fitr prayer.