

What Have You Taught Your Child Today?

By SISTER WILMA ANN

What have you taught your child today

Some nursery rhyme, about beanstalks and hay

Or a more sacred thing, like the manner to pray .

Or when he is given something, what to say.

Or some facts of the earth
when he asked you why

Why the cows give milk, why the blue in the sky

Why during the winter, leaves fall and die

A million times a child asks why.

Think of it mother, what would you say, if asked;

What have you taught your
child today.
