

Support New Leader

the Messenger's passing. He quoted a passage asking "...will you turn back...?" A resounding "No Sir" was the response from the capacity crowd of more than 25,000 followers and supporters. Muhammad Ali, in the same vein alluding to the Nation's new leadership recalled for the audience that the Messenger's son, Brother Herbert Muhammad had told him of the Messenger's revelation of Allah's promised visit to Minister Wallace Muhammad upon his attaining the maturity of 40 or more years.

"Also, in pointing to Minister Wallace's role, another son, Brother Nathaniel Muhammad told the audience that 'Master Fard Muhammad, Our Saviour, wrote his name on the back of one of the doors of our house in capital letters... Allah knew then that we would need him.

MINISTER Nathaniel then pledged his love and allegiance to his brother as he turned to embrace him. Following Min. Muhammad was Min. Abdul Rahman, minister of Temple No. 15, and Southern Regional Representative who pledged the loyalty of that region in fellowship and obedience to the Messenger's choice.

"We are going to stand up and be strong," he said. "We knew that Allah would not leave us without leadership...and we know now, the successor to the throne. I pledge the Southern Region behind the leadership of the Honorable Wallace D. Muhammad."

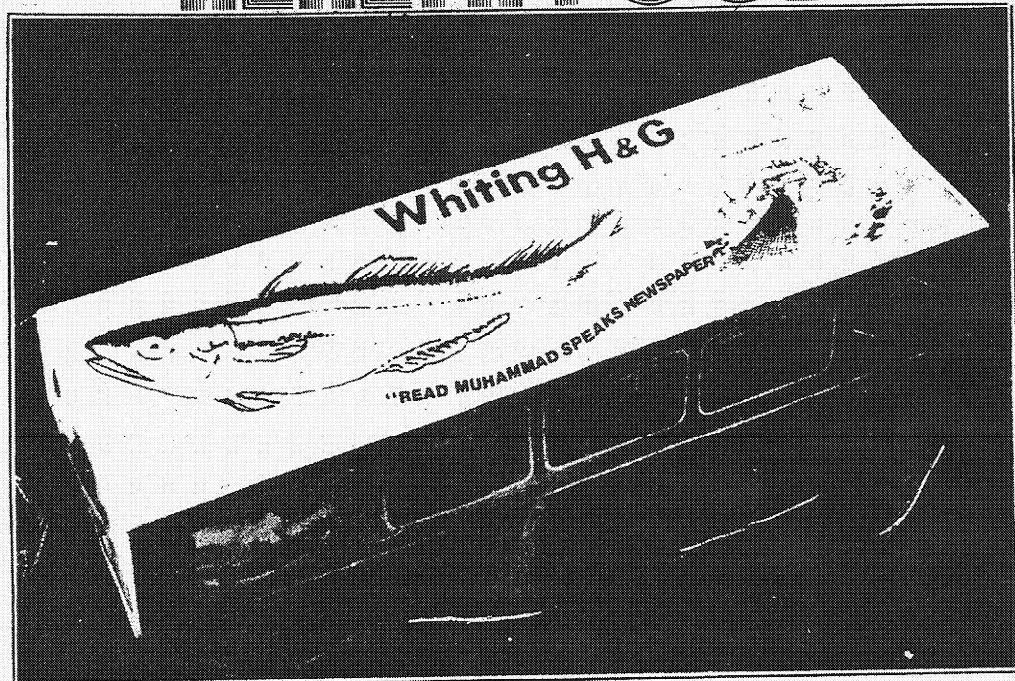

MINISTER ABDUL Karriem, the Nation's West Coast Representative no less electrified the crowd with a stirring message declaring that the Honorable Elijah Muhammad "prepared one from Himself to be our head — Wallace D. Muhammad.

MINISTER Farrakhan, the National Representative for the Nation, and minister of Temple No. 7 in New York, also added his support and that of the East Coast Muslims. Momentarily overcome with the greatness of the moment, Minister Farrakhan continued with deep emotion: "The Hon. Elijah Muhammad's life was the will of God: His son is the will of God."

"Allah did not leave us comfortless. He knew we would need a comforter," he added.

MINISTER Jeremiah Shabazz of Temple No. 12 in Philadelphia likened the Messenger's children to princes and princesses. He said that the Messenger had given us "six princes and two princesses"...a total of eight children from Himself."
