

"AN INTERNATIONAL Evening" sponsored recently by the Student Council and faculty of Muhammad's University of Islam, featured students of the Muslim parochial school in Chicago wearing native attire of African, Asian, Caribbean and Latin American countries. Shown in the India booth are Shaheena Rycraw and Fonzea Pickett.

THE PROGRAM of "An International Evening" at Muhammad's University of Islam, Chicago, underscored what the students have learned about the history of African, Asian, Caribbean and Latin American nations. In the Saudi Arabia booth are Hallema Muhammad and Ameer Muhammad. Funds from the affair were donated to the Educational Center Fund.

International Evening At U. of Islam

AN EXOTIC and lively program, "An International Evening," was presented at Muhammad's University of Islam in Chicago by the Student Council and faculty of the school founded by the Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

Student participants were dressed in the national attire of citizens of African, Asian, Caribbean and Latin American countries. The program showcased what the students have learned about the history of these nations.

THERE WERE booths of the different countries, each with souvenirs of the nations represented, and copies of Mr. Muhammad's great new book, "Message to the Blackman."

Minister James Shabazz of Muhammad's Mosque No. 2, Chicago, gave the prayer. Other program participants included Minister Omar, principal of the University of Islam, who presented greetings from the faculty; Ozler Muhammad and Alan Omar, the Student Council, and Brother Alonzo 2X, president of the P.T.A.

FUNDS FROM the affair were donated to the Educational Center Fund.

Se'assie Urges Peace

ADDIS ABABA—Ethiopia's Emperor Haile Selassie has called on all the world's head of state to help solve "major problems threatening international peace and security."

A report said Emperor Selassie specifically mentioned the India-Pakistan conflict, the Viet Nam war and the spread of nuclear weapons.

SHABAZZ

RESTAURANT & BAKERY
Cleveland's Newest and Semi-Ultra-Modern Asiatic Restaurant. We serve Asiatic style and American Cooked Foods.
12434 Superior Ave., Cleveland, Ohio
MU 1-9841 OPEN 24 HOURS