JANUARY 3, 1964

For And About You

DEAR HARRIETT: I'm not a Muslim, but I am interested in your Muslim program. I want to go to the mosque, but I've heard from the grapevine that in order to go I have to cover my hair and wear long dresses. Do I really have to do all this? Just what are the requirements? Thanking you in advance, I remain

—INTERESTED

DEAR INTERESTED: There are some sour grapes on your grapevine, dear.

Don't confuse Muslims with Mormons. We are whatever you like. Mr. Muhammad has said that he will even teach you in a bathing suit.

We have had visitors clad in everything from tight Levis to ermine and mink. Once we were visited by a teenage gang of girls and boys called the Egyptian Cobras. They wore Levis, leather jackets, and carried zip guns. All that was asked of them was that they check their weapons.

One other thing that we ask of you is that you don't come under the influence of alcohol. You can't learn much in such a condition, now, can you?

Nyasaland's Capital
CHICHIRI. Nyasaland—Dr. Hastings Banda, Prime Minister of self-governing Nyasaland, disclosed here recently that he proposes to change the name of the capital city from Blantyre to either Soche or Ndirande.

He made the statement at the cornerstone laying ceremonies of the new headquarters of the Malawi Congress Party.
