

The Woman in Islam

By Margary Hassain

In The Name Of Allah, Master Fard Muhammad to Whom Praises are due forever, for Messenger Muhammad who is refining the Black woman, so that she becomes again, "a good woman"

Messenger Muhammad teaches The Woman In Islam, that Allah (God) Has Come to put us (the Black Man in America, who believe in Allah) on top of the civilized nations of the earth. If you are keeping informed, of current events, as you should by means of newspaper, magazines, radio and television, you will see that Allah (God) is Blessing us with success, peace and prosperity, through His Messenger Muhammad.

HE teaches us that his Black woman is the most important asset of the Black Man and if you put a man on an Island filled with the treasures of the earth, and if you came back later to see if he was satisfied and happy, — he will say that he desires woman. It is natural for man and woman to desire one another, for they are part of one another.

BIBLE Pr. 31:10 - 12 —
"Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life."

WE are familiar with the expression, "A man's home is his castle," but until we come into Islam, we cannot begin to comprehend the magnitude of the meaning of this expression. Messenger Muhammad teaches us that the Black Woman is queen of the planet earth and he is preparing us to take our places and operate our castles so that guests will praise the graciousness and hospitality of the Black Man's home and his wife. The woman can bring praise or she can bring ridicule to her husband. Too often in the past, and present in Christianity, the

On Life In The Sudan

By Bayyinah Sharrieff

The Sudanese women placed much attention on their personal selves. They were always very careful to make sure that their dresses matched the color of their tobies (national wrap which is worn to cover their hair and their dress) and that their tobies were free of wrinkles.

THEY TOOK time with their hair, brushing and oiling and twisting it to keep it neat and beautiful. They were so particular themselves when compared to the American woman (who gets up late in the morning and rushes a wash-off and grabs practically anything in the line of clothes

Black woman leads the parade in ridiculing her own husband. She did not know that she is disgracing herself, and is hated by the God. This type of woman is a foolish woman.

Bible Pr. 12:4 — "A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones."

THE WOMAN IN ISLAM Gives all Holy Praises to Allah, Master Fard Muhammad for His Divine Messenger and His Divine Message which makes the Black woman wise and good.

to put on and gives her hair a quick brush over) that I was first very surprised to see such cleanliness and grooming among a people who white America had said were half savage and uncivilized. I had to make sure that I was equally as conscious that I might feel comfortable around them.

They were light pastel colors in the day time, but hardly ever more than one or two colors. Nothing like the multicolored African prints which are on the market today representing Africa.

No one Sudanese woman cleaned a whole house and yard complex by herself. In almost all instances a boy or two were hired to do the heavy house work. This gave the Muslim Sudanese woman time to care for herself during the day while her husband was at work and thus inabled her to remain attractive to her husband and family.
