Women in Islam

By TYNNETTA DEANAR

The structure of Islamic Society guides both male and female towards complete and full equality. The power of this achievement relies heavily for its ascent on the conception of inferiority as applied only to what we fail to accomplish upon the agenda of equal opportunity for all. And superiority, when attainment is neither seduced nor handicapped by any forces of human weakness and prejudice.

In our present society, inferiority is the result of abuse and tolerance of a power structure which is demagogical in character and force. Therefore, there should be little wonder as to why such a poor conception of the value and potential of the women of society has emerged.

THE ENTIRE so-called Negro people have been the victims of the cruelest forms of discrimination, prejudice and subjugation. It is common knowledge that the so-called American Negroes have been reduced to the footstool of all nations.

Therefore, it is foolish to charge inferiority or inequality of treatment of the Muslim Women in this era of reform and reassessment of principals and principalities when our entire Race of men and women are treated as inferior to all others. Even the children of other Races are held in venerated and upgraded esteem in comparison to the Black Men and Women of our nation.

THERE IS SO little that we know of our own people and society and so little else of anything of value which constitutes culture and intelligence that we can never become the critics or contest over that of which we have no knowledge. Human evolution and social evolution are forces which are actually motivated by Supreme Power as executed by a Divine Supreme Being.

TODAY, THE Honorable Elijah Muhammad is arresting the minds of the most intelligent and is causing the most ignorant and the most stubborn critics of our people to make an about face, for the world honors the works of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad that will live forever.
