

The Woman in Islam

By Margary Hassain

ALL Praises are due to Allah (God) Master Fard Muhammad. THE WOMAN IN ISLAM gives thanks to Allah (God) for His Divine Messenger Muhammad and His Divine Message that every man must go to his Own.

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches THE WOMAN IN ISLAM of the pure union that Allah (God) made between the Black Man and the Black Woman in their creation. Each fulfills the needs of the other. As Allah (God) is the Supplier of our needs so that we lack nothing if we turn to Him, the Black Man (husband) is the provider of the material needs for the union and the wife is to care for what he has provided. She is to care for, cherish, comfort, encourage and uplift her husband in word and deed. The Black Man can do amazing things if his wife believes in him and makes him believe in himself. In living their life under the teachings and guidance from Allah (God) to His Messenger, the state of matrimony returns to its original state of heaven.

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches us that the Black Woman is a savage when she is without the knowledge of herself, and being robbed of this knowledge of self, under the rule of the white man, she must be taught the knowledge of her God, her husband and herself. Until she is taught this vital knowledge their union is not a union, but instead it is a savage mockery of the Holy God and His Divine Principles.

THE savage Black woman seeks to mock, disgrace and dispute with her husband at every opportunity, in his presence and behind his back she unceasingly works for his destruction. If he seeks to rise above the mud that the devil has thrown all we black people into, at every turn and to all who will listen, she whispers, "He was not always as he appears now. He used to do this and that. How I have suffered she self-righteously sighs." She never washes herself with thanksgiving. Her filthy spirit sickens the spirit of others. She is repugnant to the world and the Black Man who is the mud of the white man's civilization from ourselves and are being washed in the truth from Allah (God) administered by His Messenger.

SHE need look no further for things to disgrace her husband with, for she herself is his greatest disgrace. A treacherous, disloyal unrighteous wife is a curse and

Allah (God) Will Bring about a separation as the scriptures teach us that in the beginning it was not meant for the righteous and the unrighteous to be together.
