

★ Women in Islam ★

By Tynetta Deonar

The world awaits to see if the word of Muhammad will prove true. Is your future and that of your children so insignificant, in your view, that you will not study in advance the message of Allah's Spokesman?

If you can prove that his warnings to the black and white nations are based upon falsehood, your present course of rejection is justifiable; but if you cannot disprove his message nor propose a more elevating and productive program for the so-called American Negro, there is only remaining a brief period in which you must decide in favor of Muhammad if your future is to materialize.

The black women of America who believe it is more noble to integrate than to separate (not segregate) from their persecutors, ask upon what system of logic and principles have you decided that you can live at peace with your enemies?

The settlement of the 400 years of racial strife in America can never be resolved through integration, for the seed of hate that germinated when the white race was created cannot be destroyed until they are grafted back into the Original Man (black man), teaches our spiritual leader, Messenger Muhammad.

There is no other place in the world where integration is regarded as a settlement between the colonized and the colonists, or between the indigenous inhabitants and their foreign dominators.

Today, it is, a question of returning to what was. It is a question of the right of ownership and the right to self-rule. Wherever integration has occurred, it has inflicted deep wounds of prejudice and discrimination between castes and classes throughout the world. What is wrong with the white man?

Why is he so intolerant of the black man? Or rather, what is wrong with the black man that he places his future in the hands of those who can hate with a smile and pretend friendship as an arbitrator of justice hindering your learning of your own people and civilization?

If the world is reported to America still entertains doubts and resigns himself to the position of—let's wait and see.

How long will the black people of America deny this great man the honor deserved for his tireless efforts in doing what no other man could bear or endure?

The day cometh, reveals the Holy Qur-an, when every nation and people will be brought to its knees to read its record. What is in the near future? Wait and see.

Operator, How's The Weather?

PHOTO OF THE WEEK shows 8-month-old Dijah X Williams son of Fred and Katherine 2X of San Francisco, checking with weather bureau before going out on a cold West Coast day.

be more advanced today than in any period in history, why has the elementary lesson of loving one's fellow man been erased from the slate of progress and ignored by this particular race?

They were sent prophets, then, if you do not believe the word of Muhammad today. The Qur-an also states that we, too, are waiting; but which side are you on?

Ghana's Radio Sets