The Woman in Islam

By Margary Hassain

ALL Holy Praises are due to Allah, (God), Master Fard Muhammad. THE WOMAN IN ISLAM gives eternal thanks to Allah (God) for His Divine Messenger, Muhammad and the Divine Message that he brings.

THE BIBLE, Mt. 16:13, 14, 15. "...Jesus... asked his disciples, saying, whom do men say that I the Son of man am? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist; some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. He (Jesus) saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?"

BY the light of the Divine Teachings of Messenger Muhammad, THE WOMAN IN ISLAM sees that this Bible reference of 2,000 years ago is referring in whole, to Messenger Muhammad, today. These verses show that even the disciples, the followers of Jesus, did not really know who he was, and they sought to conceal their ignorance of his true identity by repeating what men said of Jesus, instead of what they knew of Jesus. In so doing, they revealed their lack of knowledge, of him.

THE WOMAN IN ISLAM does not have to chase the people, their concepts or ideas in an effort to arrive at a conclusion of WHO MESSENGER MUHAMMAD IS. She knows who he is. This wisdom and knowledge of Messenger Muhammad comes not from others or from herself. Knowledge of Muhammad comes from Allah (God) Himself. Mt. 16:17 verifies this truth.

THE HONORABLE ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the Messenger of Allah. Allah Is The Living God, Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom Praises are due forever.

EVERYTHING contained in the universe bears witness to the Living God Allah and His Living Messenger Muhammad. In the Presence of the Divine Truth of Allah (God) administered to us by the Messenger of the Living Truth, Messenger Muhammad, everything in the universe springs into LIFE. Looking into the infinite depths and beauty of Divine Truth, Messenger Muhammad often repeats to us, "O would that you understood!" But we know that understanding is a precious gift from Allah (God). We cannot get understanding except Allah (God) Give it to us.

If the Black Man and Woman of America knew who

Messenger Muhammad is and what he means to us as a people, at the Call of Muhammad the Black People of America would be coming to him by car, by boat, by wagon, by walking, by hitch-hiking with one aim and purpose... just to get here.

IS there any wonder that THE WOMAN IN ISLAM gives universal thanks to Allah (God) for His Divine Messenger Muhammad and His Divine Message? ALLAH IS THE GREATEST.
