

The Woman in Islam

By Margery Hassain

THE WOMAN in Islam, is re-awakened to the knowledge of herself, by the stirring teachings, of THE HONORABLE ELIJAH MUHAMMAD. Joyfully, she invites her lost-found family and friends to come to the Mosque. Our Black Sisters (visitors) desire to know the appropriate dress to wear in response to this greatest of all invitations. Visitors must be modestly dressed, hair covered by a scarf, long - sleeved dress. (Some come happily with full ankle - length dress.) Skirts must be well - below the knees, for all visitors.

THE CLOTHING, of the Woman in Islam, are her garments of righteousness, and shows that she is a member of the Nation of Righteousness. It is easy for us to wear the clothes which Allah (God) Wills us to wear, for Muslim, means one who has submitted to the Will of Allah (God), Who Came in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom Praises are due forever.

VISITORS, to the Mosque will see the Muslim Sisters clothed in beautiful, glistening white robes and lovely tastefully matching jewelry (pearls or crystals), her natural face glowing with health and cleanliness of mind and body. The Bible, Jb. 29:14, verifies and teaches us, "I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my judgment was a robe and a diadem."

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD, teaches us that the Muslims are the priests and saints of Allah (God) Ps 132:9, verifies and teaches us, "Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy."

WOMEN IN ISLAM, be quick to obey Messenger Muhammad, for every word that Messenger Muhammad, gives us, is from Allah (God), for our salvation.

THE MISSION, of Messenger Muhammad, it wrapped up in the Wisdom of Allah (God). Black Women in Islam let the news ring out. Praises be to Allah (God) for His Messenger Muhammad!
