

The Woman in Islam

By Margary Hassain

IN the Name of Allah (God) MASTER FARD MUHAMMAD, to Whom Praises are due forever. The Woman in Islam Gives all Holy Praises to Allah (God) for Choosing a man like ourselves, our Brother, ELIJAH MUHAMMAD... Raising Him Up and Turning him into a Teacher of Righteousness, for us.

WOMAN IS MAN'S COMPANION

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches us that Man (Black Man) made the Woman for his companion. He made her for his glorification. They are a pair.. a set of like persons ... they are a matched set. She attends to his needs and desires and he attends to her needs and desires.

MAN and WOMAN belong together. Since they are a pair.. a set... one is not complete without the other. They belong together. When they are not together they seek each other. Then, when they find each other, they are satisfied.

SINCE Man and Woman are part of each other, MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches The Woman in Islam that they share their life together and what befalls one, befalls the other.

THE enemy to the man, is the enemy to the woman. This is true, even though some women have had to learn this lesson the hard way.

THE man should always be able to go to the woman for understanding of his problems, and she should always feel that she can come to him and confide in him. With the two of them together, they can accomplish easily, that which one fell short of doing, alone.

ALL of the wealth and other possessions that a man may have is like the frosting on the cake, but the woman is like the cake. Whatever happens, the man should be able to know that if all else fails, he still has his woman.

THE woman is the base from which the man builds. What he acquires, he acquires for the woman. He wants her to be happy, proud of him and proud of his achievements. She gives him strength and courage by her love and confidence in him. She keeps the fight in him and no man is ever defeated as long as he continues to fight.

The Woman in Islam Gives all Praises to Allah (God) for MESSENGER ELIJAH MUHAMMAD, and his DIVINE
